Financial Security For All

June 25 , 2014

Integrating Financial Security into Promise Neighborhoods

Download your copy of Integrating Family Financial Security into Promise Neighborhoods: A Resource and Implementation Guide, a new PolicyLink report that helps Promise Neighborhood sites consider the many ways in which they might incorporate financial capability into their on-going work. The guide is also intended to connect Promise Neighborhoods to potential partnerships across the asset-building field. Many of the practices lifted up in the report are designed to mitigate the negative outcomes associated with the lack of academic and family supports, as well as the compounded effects of concentrated poverty and financial instability in communities.
