FROM THE FIELD: New Resources on Children's Savings Accounts

Take a look at these recent resources on children's savings accounts from New America Foundation and CFED.

(1) Children's Savings Accounts: Research, Practice, and Implications for Policy Design, a paper by New America Foundation, reviews the research foundations for this policy idea, describes the proliferation of recent policy efforts in diverse contexts, and considers some of the key policy design questions relevant for a federal policy effort. (2) Scholarly Research on Children's Savings Accounts, a fact sheet from CFED, serves as an annotated bibliography of peer-reviewed research on CSAs as it relates to early childhood development and financial capability, college expectations, and college enrollment and graduation.
